Support St Nicholas Priory by becoming a Member

*And play your part in 900
years of history*

The priory was founded in 1087, making it the oldest building in Exeter. We value the vital support of our members to help preserve over 900 years of beautifully rich Devon history.

Becoming a member of Exeter Historic Buildings Trust supports St Nicholas Priory.

With your generous support and donations we can keep our priory open and give you more!

Legacy Donations

As a small charity, we rely on the generosity of our supporters. Leaving us a gift in your will is easy, and can make a huge difference for years to come. Learn more about how to do this on our website.

Standard Membership

A great way to support the Priory for £10 per year you gain access to:

- A regular newsletter keeping you updated on the Priory and events, as well as other Historic Buildings in Exeter
- Special openings for members (including themed tours)
- An invitation to our AGM event

Family Membership

Are you looking for family activities during half terms and holidays? Why not join us with a family Membership.

- ❖ £20 per year
- ❖ £15 per year for single-parent families

You gain access to:

- The regular members newsletter will include details on children's events, such as special family tours, which includes dressing up, playing Tudor games, re-enactment, storytelling, special cooking and craft workshops, and more!

For family events, see Nick's Kids on our website, www.nicholaspriory.com
